

Marcelle Antoinette Devries

Marcelle was 36 years old and not married when she was killed in Auschwitz on 31 August 1942. Both of her parents, brother and younger sister survived the Holocaust but are unfortunately no longer alive. Her brother Herman named his son, Marcel Devries, in memory of his sister. Their house was built close to the canal, probably because her father was in the rabbit skin business. During the war they had to move out of their house and into a building close to their factory because their house was occupied by over 140 soldiers throughout the war.
