

Eleonore Goldschmidt-Seliger

Eleonore was called Elly by her family (on the right). She was born in Bad Orb, Germany, and later moved to Lich, where she married Moritz Goldschmidt. They had two children, Gertrud and Herbert, and owned a large clothes shop. After 1938 she fled with her son Herbert and his family to Maastricht. Her husband had died a few years earlier.